Activities of CDC

- To enable the college to nurture excellence in curricular, co-curricular, and extra-curricular activities, create an overall comprehensive development plan for the college academic, administrative, and infrastructure expansion.
- Make suggestions to the administration for the establishment of new academic programs and the creation of more teaching and managerial positions.
- Review the courses taken, and offer suggestions for how to make them better.
- Provide the Governing Body with specific advice on how to strengthen the research culture, consulting practices, and extension efforts in the college.

- Make specific recommendations regarding the improvement of teaching and appropriate training programs for the college's staff as felt necessary and to encourage academic collaborations to strengthen teaching and research.
- Propose the Institutes yearly financial estimates (budget) and financial statements and recommend them for the Governing Body's approval.
- Offer suggestions for the college or institution's welfare programs for students and staff.
- Take into account AAA reports, audit reports, AQAR report, etc. and make relevant suggestions.
